Nickelodeon to Broadcast Views of Sikh Youth

The Nickelodeon Cable TV will include a Sikh youth from Philadelphia among the many voices of faith in its Nick News special edition program titled "God, Science, Politics, and Your School" on Sunday, January 22, 2006 at 8:30 PM ET/PT.

The episode explains to youth the current debate taking place in our country over Evolution vs. Intelligent Design in schools. The program gives voices to youth ages 12-15. The episode will feature a segment where kids of many religions share their views on the question "Where do we come from?".

The World Sikh Council - America Region (WSC-AR) appreciates Religions for Peace (RFP) - USA referring Nickelodeon to WSC-AR for this program. We also thank the Sikh youth from Philadelphia who shared his views on the episode as well as the Sikh community members of the Philadelphia Gurdwara Sahib (member organization of WSC-AR) who helped the Sikh youth prepare for the program.

Sikh Gurdwaras are requested to circulate this information to the local Sikh community, especially the Sikh youth. There is nothing like seeing your own on TV in a positive light - and in a mainstream setting!
